

CORPS OF CADETS APPEAL FORM

University sanctions are appealed to the University Appeals Panel.
Corps sanctions are appealed to the Commandant's Appeals Panel.

NOTE: Bring this completed form Col. Mallahan's Office prior to the scheduled hearing.

- You voluntarily joined the Corps of Cadets and accepted the Aggie Code of Honor as the primary guide for living as a cadet. Further, you voluntarily agreed to support the ideal that Aggie Cadets live by a higher standard and conduct themselves accordingly.

Today's Date: _____

Name: _____

Outfit: _____ Dorm _____ Room _____ Telephone _____

Basis for appeal: (Check all that apply)

- Sanction not equivalent with the offense. (Sanction is greater than the offense would call for - please explain on following page)
Additional information that was not available at the time of the hearing. (Brand new information might require scheduling a new case.)
Violation of due process. (One or more of the cadets' rights, as outlined in The Standard, was not followed.)

I will be accompanied by advisor (check one):

- No. I will not be accompanied by an advisor.
Yes. I will be accompanied by an advisor. One or both parents may serve in the advisor role.

For All Appeals:

Did you commit the violation? ___ yes ___ no (specify below)

Specifically, explain why you are appealing (please be specific about which sanction you are appealing):

Do you have any significant and relevant new evidence, not presented at your first hearing, which might change the outcome? ___ no ___ yes (specify below)

Additional circumstances/information which should be considered:

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

